

Positions on Job Profiler

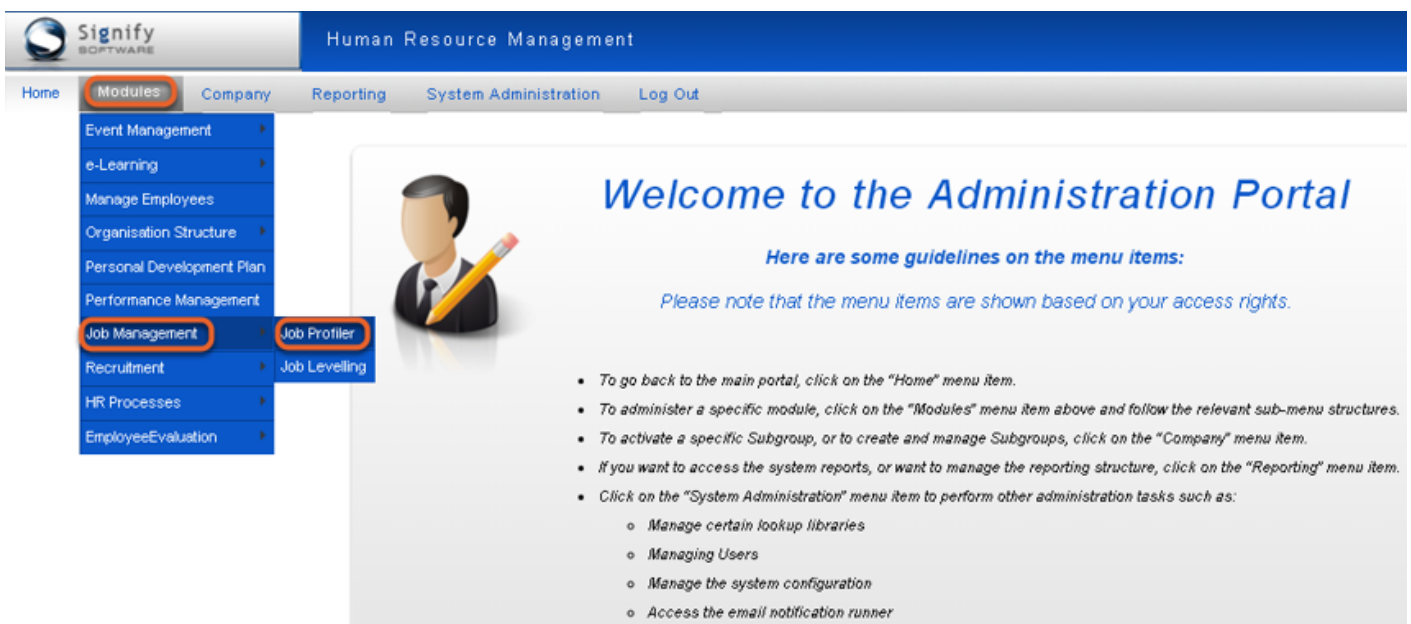

In order to advertise a position, that position must exist in the Job Profiler module.

Verify the position's details

As mentioned, the first step before building a position's advertisement is to verify the position's details in the Job Profiler module.

Check the job's profile

Open the Job Profiler module from the main menu.

Locate the applicable Job Profile

- Locate the applicable job profile by searching for it on the list of job profiles.
- When found, in the Action field, click Click here to... and select Edit from the available options.
